

Things to Do in Pittsburgh

-Take the Duquesne Incline to Mount Washington for a beautiful view of the city:

<http://incline.pghfree.net/>

-Check out the bars and restaurants in the South Side: <http://www.southsidepittsburgh.com/>

-Walk around Squirrel Hill (shops, movie, restaurants, etc):

<http://www.popcitymedia.com/features/35sqhillviz.aspx>

- Visit the Andy Warhol Museum: <http://www.warhol.org/>

- Visit the Carnegie Museum of Art near the Cathedral and then walk down Craig Street (you'll find lots of restaurants and coffee shops there): <http://www.cmoa.org/>

- In the summer months, you'll want to visit the many parks that there are in Pittsburgh. There are scheduled events like art shows, movie showings, etc., fun for adults and children:

<http://www.pittsburghparks.org/>

Note for suggestion above: Schenley Park is close to campus and has a nice trail for walking or running (see map: <http://www.pittsburghparks.org/userdocs/schenleymap.pdf>)

-Visit the botanical gardens (Phipps Conservatory), a close walk from campus:

<http://phipps.conservatory.org/>

-Eat at Primanti Brothers (located near campus at 3803 Forbes), one of Pittsburgh's landmark restaurants famous for its sandwiches stuffed with fries: <http://www.primantibrothers.com/>